South Bay votes "no" to federal prison bid

By DAVID RANIERI
Staff Writer

A federal prison is not in South Bay's future following a decision by the South Bay City Commission Tuesday evening.

About a dozen South Bay residents attended the regular commission meeting to protest a 450-bed federal prison proposed by National Corrections Management Incorporated, a Wellington firm.

The company had hoped to build the facility on 51.2 acres of the 207.8 acre Brady property. The facility would have housed felons held by the U.S. Marshal and criminal immigrants awaiting deportation by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS). The $12.5 million project would have created approximately 95 jobs at full capacity.

South Bay currently has about 700 to 800 full-time jobs, more than half are at South Bay Growers.

The city's unemployment rate is 24.6.

But South Bay City officials and community residents were concerned about having a prison located next to the newly designated county RV park and proposed family housing projects.

"These are very 'not in my back yard' kinds of facilities, even though they're going to create a lot of jobs and some economic stimulation," said Mayor Clarence Anthony.

City officials voted unanimously against supporting the company's bid for the prison, but still are considering a juvenile center or federal immigration processing center.

"Brother Bill" sentenced to 12 years in prison

Clarence "Brother Bill" Williams, leader of the Holy Way Church in Pahokee, has been sentenced to 12 years in prison for violating his probation in a 1987 sex case.

Circuit Judge Virginia Gay Broome Tuesday called Williams "an evil man" and imposed the maximum sentence allowed under state sentencing guidelines for the probation violation although Williams' attorney pleaded with the judge to sentence Williams to house arrest.

Williams, 70, was sentenced to five years' probation in April 1987 for encouraging teenage girls to fondle each other in his presence. On April 23 of this year he was convicted of having sex with an underage girl, Andrea Hoops. He is awaiting sentencing on that conviction.

During the trial preceding the April conviction, Miss Hoops told jurors she endured three years of sex in God's name when she was 14. Probation officials revoked Williams' probation on similar charges when they learned of Miss Hoops' accusations.

The Holy Way Church in Pahokee has been accused of being a cult similar to the Branch Davidians lead by David Koresh.

Environmentally aware...Students at Gove Elementary School display artwork of the characters they will portray in an upcoming play, "The Great Kapok Tree." The play will end a study unit on the environment. As another part of their studies, Florida Game and Freshwater Fish Commission reservist Kathy Vandiver and Officer John Farill spoke to the children this week about Florida endangered species and their preservation for the future. Glades Day boasts "superior" cheerleaders Glades Day Senior Amie Carter has cheered herself a trip to England this Christmas.

Amie Carter, a senior from Glades Day School, may be on her way to London in December for the annual Christmas parade after making the All-Star Cheerleading Squad during the Universal Cheerleading Association (UCA) Cheerleader Camp held last month at the University of South Florida in Sarasota.

Miss Carter competed with more than 100 girls for the top spots on the All-Star team. She attended the camp with sponsor Betty Fountain and the rest of the 10-member squad from Glades Day.

"We've had a few girls try out in the past, but this is the first time one of ours has made it," said Mrs. Fountain. "Actually, we had two, with Karen De Castro making the All-Star Junior Varsity Squad."

Miss De Castro, a freshman, is eligible to participate with the All-Stars in the New Year's Day Parade in Texas. She attended the camp with sponsor Cindy Baez and the rest of the JV cheerleaders at Glades Day.

"I'm very happy for both of them, especially Amie, since this is her senior year," said Mrs. Fountain. "She's always been a hard worker and an enthusiastic cheerleader."

The varsity squad earned a superior rating, the highest recognition given to cheerleading squads during the camp. Team members include Kelly Culberson, Stephanie Lockhart, Carmen Ruiz, Valerie York, Tara York, Jessica Crawford, Heather Evans, Sarah Willis, Marnae Kohr and Miss Carter.

JV cheerleaders also received a superior rating. They are Lesley Carter, Shannon Dobrow, Carla Baez, Sara Hanley, Brooke Prescott, Nicole Rivas, Stephanie Stein and Miss De Castro.

Kids show summer colors

A "summer" coloring contest sponsored by the Physicians Clinic of Glades General Hospital drew entries from children ages three to nine from Belle Glade, Clewiston, Okeechobee and Pahokee.

"Best of Show" was captured by five-year-old Carl Abbott of Clewiston, who showed he put lots of thought in choosing his bold colors and using them well to complete his picture. Young Carl received a $10 bill from Glades General Hospital Personnel Director Curtis Thompson. The youngster also won a "Best of Show" ribbon and several special gifts.

Other winners (listed first place through third place) included:

Age 3 - Macy Deaton, Flora Heffernan and Derek Davis.

Age 4 - Stephanie Kirchman, Michael Korbly and Cory Hickman.

Age 5 - Carl Abbott, Jose Gonzales and Chuckie Simmons.

Age 6 - Deane Deaton, Roberta Rodriguez and Michael Williams.

Age 7 - Jeana Cunningham, James Copen and Bradley Schlechter.

Age 8 - Staci Bowermeister,

Carl Abbott, 5, of Clewiston, was chosen "Best of Show." Above he is presented with $10 and other prizes by Curtis Thompson of Glades General.

Robbie Heffernan and Adam Weiland.

Age 9 - Kristen Kujawski, David Harrison and Josh Copen.

"Cookies and juice were served to about 35 children who attended the awards ceremony.

Artwork submitted was judged by a panel of four including: Financial Counselor

Anita Shad; Barbie Fabelo, of the medical records department; Finance Secretary Vickie Boyd and Nursing Supervisor Pattie Hood. Choices were based on color and ability for each age group.

Glades General plans another contest for this fall, to be held in conjunction with the Lakefront Legacy Festival.

Director of the Red Cross office in Belle Glade.

The community also responded to the call for help by raising money to help the family. Ezekiel was a popular student at Lake Shore Middle School. Teachers and students raised money to help the family get back on its feet.

"We have a place to live now," said Ms. Belmont. "I'm just waiting for a stove to be delivered."

Ms. Belmont, who cleans houses for a living, has nothing but praise for the Red Cross.

"The Red Cross was great," she said. "I don't know what we would have done without their help. I recommend people support them because they were there for me and my family when we needed them."

The Belmont family is just one of many helped by the local agency. June has also been a busy month for the West County branch of the American Red Cross. Ms. Hopkins said. The agency has helped five families, 32 people total, at a cost of more than $14,000.

The American Red Cross is available to the community 24 hours a day, seven days a week, to handle major disasters such as floods and hurricanes, but also disasters on a smaller scale such as family fires," said Ms. Hopkins.

It's important for the community to know that money donated to the American Red Cross stays in their community and is used for people in their community,"

On parade for the USA...Students at Rosenwald Elementary School have learned a lot about the world this summer. The 330 students attending summer school there recently completed a study-unit called "Around the World in 24 Days." During their 24-day tour of the world the children read folktales and prepared food from Australia, the United States, Venezuela, Brazil, Mexico, Africa and Hawaii. The unit ended with the children dressing in the costumes of the different areas for a parade. The kindergarten class above was the hometown favorite, representing the USA.

Foley named to national committee on children

Senator Mark Foley (R-West Palm Beach) has been selected as a member of the Children and Family Services Committee of the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL). The committee is one of 11 standing committees and two task forces of the NCSL's Assembly on the Legislature, which serves as a forum for the exchange of ideas and information among state legislatures. The Assembly meets three times each year to address critical issues facing the states. This year the committee will focus on healthcare reform, child care, welfare reform and abuse and neglect.

NCSL represents the legislators of the nation's 50 states, its commonwealths and territories. NCSL has three objectives:

To improve the quality and effectiveness of state legislatures; to foster interstate communication and cooperation; and to assure state legislatures a strong, cohesive voice in the federal system.

"As a member of the Children and Family Services Committee, I will share information and exchange ideas on a variety of issues confronting state legislators," said Sen. Foley. "I look forward to working with my colleagues throughout the country."

Don't speak for everyone

Recently, in this paper, someone was dead wrong in saying the people of the Glades were very upset and mad about the city's hiring policies.

I've lived here for over 30 years and find that to be a false statement. Qualified people are hired for the job.

Next time, don't speak for all of us.

Houses were condemned

You had an article in the paper on May the 6th of this year and it was concerning a house on 110 Lakeshore Drive in Canal Point. It also said that two homes were removed.

They were condemned about five years ago, but not torn down. The people of Canal Point are wondering why these houses are still there.

It's very simple. If nobody knows, somebody should find out.

Thank you.

More on city hiring

I would like to respond to last week's article in the Speak Out on the hiring practices in the City of Belle Glade.

I should like to point out that the Code of Ordinance of the City in Section 5-14 makes it illegal for any commissioner to request appointment or removal of city employees. I believe that this is a misdemeanor punishable by fine or imprisonment.

I should also like to point out that except for a few select employees; City Manager, Public Works Director, contract labor, and unskilled labor, all other employees fall under the rules of Civil Service.

This is also in the Code of Ordinance of the City in Chapter 18-2.

That would make all employees except those in the Fire Department and Police Department illegally hired.

No justice for substitutes

I'm calling in reference to the paper that came out July 8, 1993. This paper voiced concern by substitute teachers that they were given no raise.

I would also like to bring out that substitute teachers were the only ones who during the 1992-93 school term who had their hours cut.

Other employees were cut, but substitute pay was cut by something like 30 percent and then they didn't even give us the three percent raise that all employees got.

I feel like this is discrimination. Working as a substitute, they expect us to fill in vacancies when teachers quit, they expect us to grade papers and attend meetings... just do everything that teachers do. But when it's time to pay us, they treat us very unfairly.

I feel this should be brought out, that substitutes are really treated differently from the other employees.

Thank you for listening.

Prosperity depends on more burglary arrests

South Bay - Response to Mayor Anthony - I am involved and have been for many years.

I would like to know how many arrests have been made? Of all the break-ins, how many of these people have been repaid for their losses and damages, or properties recovered? I did not ask for a sponsor plus of the RV park or other things that might come.

I was making a statement as to how are we going to survive if all this continues and no arrests.

I know speeding tickets are top pay for the city, anyone can plainly see that.

If the problem can't be solved, who wants to visit in our city or visit if they are to get robbed or burglarized?

You can't leave your car or truck now at the boat ramp without them being broken into. It costs a lot of money to replace windows and items lost and some things can't be replaced.

We need to prosper now so these new programs will want to come. We need some arrests. We need paid for our losses.

I urge the people of South Bay to help put a stop to those who are giving us a black-eye.

Again, I would like to know how many arrests have been made.

Ask Dr. Boltson

Dr. David Boltson is the associate director of the Western Palm Beach County Mental Health Clinic in Belle Glade, and is a licensed psychologist in private practice in Lake Worth.

Dear Readers:

Last week Minnie Gray stopped at the Hot Spot lounge in South Bay. I did not know Mr. Ware or Ms. Gray but can't help wondering aloud how it is that people can behave like this. Most people supposedly go to bars to have fun or meet people. Why is it that violence often erupts when people should be feeling relaxed or happy? A few days ago in West Palm Beach a purser/catcher killed a man. What did the purser/catcher hope to gain from this murderous robbery? $300 - money for drugs? Was that robbery worth a life? Saturday night in West Palm Beach, Louis Anderson, the comedian, joked about how he wanted to kill people whose driving habits annoyed him on I-95. I suppose that this was supposed to be funny because he expected most people to be able to relate to the feeling of wanting to kill someone who annoy you.

I believe these violent feelings, attitudes and actions proliferate because many people in our society are incredibly self-centered. The problem is not merely that people do not live by a code of moral values. Rather, they value themselves and their own feelings much more than they do others. If drug addicts did not value life at all, then you would think that they would kill themselves more often than they kill others. If they felt so terrible about their drugs after all, if they did not believe that the good times (or at least pleasurable feelings) were possible for their future, why would they spend time and energy plotting and committing crimes? On the contrary, they lie, steal and kill for what they perceive to be their own benefit or to fulfill their own needs.

I hope my folks making a big deal about the fact that they don't want anyone to "dis" (disrespect) them. Ya I read about some of those folks who have killed someone because the other person said or did something that they didn't like. What a mockery it is to claim to believe in respect, and then to kill someone because they don't do or say things that you like. Tomika Themas was murdered two years ago in Pahokee by Benjamin Dotson who while she was trying to regain "respect" from some boys who were angry with her. He shot and missed, killing Tomika instead. Anyone who would kill over "respect" obviously doesn't have any respect for human life or anything else.

The problem with our society is that people get very annoyed and upset when they don't get what they want. The fact of life, however, is that very often you will not get what you want. Maturity comes with accepting that things aren't always going your way. People who kill out of anger or self-centeredness that they don't realize that is a daily fact of living that you have to put up with things or people whom you don't like. To fly into a murderous rage because someone disagreed with you, challenged you, or did something that you didn't like is an extreme perversion of self-respect.

Unfortunately many still jobs aim at killing people and too many actually do commit murder. Our society condones and accepts too much slaughter. Some believe killings are tolerable if they involve honor, revenge or retribution. Others make excuses for killers because "they live under difficult, poor or stressful conditions." To claim that personal strife can partially justify murder does a great disservice to all the persons who live under adverse circumstances, yet still manage to retain the dignity and sanctity of human life. Unless you are defending someone's life, it is absurd to believe that there is any honor, justification or rationale for killing.

If you would like to anonymously inquire about issues regarding yourself or your acquaintances, you may do so by writing to Dr. Boltson. You don't have to give your name or address. Just mail all questions to:

Five-year licenses eliminate renewal chores

One of the least expensive items a sportsman buys to hunt and fish in Florida is a license. Compared to buying bait, ammunition and gasoline, the cost of a license is a bargain.

Each year over 1 million Florida residents go through the chore of renewing hunting, freshwater and saltwater fishing licenses but the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission has something to make the process a little easier. Rather than renewing your licenses every year, Florida now offers five-year freshwater, saltwater and hunting licenses to residents.

"Five-year licenses are convenient because a person only has to make just one purchase every five years," Pete Joiner, assistant director of the Commissioner's administrative services, said.

The cost for five-year licenses are: freshwater fishing, $60; saltwater fishing, $60; and hunting, $270.

"Holders of five-year licenses also are exempt from price increases and from any new stamp requirements created while their license is valid," Joiner said.

Applications for five-year licenses are available at county tax collector's offices and their subagencies.
